

THE JURISPRUDENCE AND LEGACY OF JUSTICE GINSBURG

A panel discussion of the life, jurisprudence, and legacy of Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg.

A panel of legal scholars will consider her work on gender equality, reproductive freedom, election law, constitutional law, comparative law, and procedure, as well as the effects of her death on the Court and the judicial-appointments process.

12:30pm, Friday, October 30, 2020

Moderator: Michele Anglade (FIU)

Introduction: Leonard Strickman

(Founding Dean Emeritus, FIU)

Panelists: Richard Albert (University of Texas)

Deborah Dinner (Emory University)

Scott Dodson (UC-Hastings)

Atiba Ellis (Marquette University)

Daniel Epps (Washington University-St. Louis)

Abbe Gluck (Yale University)

B. Jessie Hill (Case-Western Reserve University)

REGISTRATION

<https://go.fiu.edu/98819312263>